Table XXIII
The Chronological Sequence of Events Including the Exodus of Israel

(Chronological and Historical Data derived from Egyptian Sources entirely)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Event Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1538 B.C.</td>
<td>21st year of Ramessu II, treaty with the Hittites</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2nd half of April (Greg.) 1487 B.C.</td>
<td>Beginning of 5th year of Menephtah</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>14th July (Greg.) 1487 B.C.</td>
<td>5th year Menephtah. Great victory against the Libyans</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1483 B.C.</td>
<td>End of 5th year of Menephtah. Exodus of Israel</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1486 B.C.</td>
<td>8th year of Menephtah.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1483 B.C.</td>
<td>End of XIXth Dynasty, 9.5 years after the Exodus of Israel</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A long period of anarchy of uncertain duration.</td>
<td>The Harris Papyrus written under Ramessu III of Dynasty XX narrates that:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A period of famine of uncertain duration.</td>
<td>The Harris Papyrus continues that there</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A period of Syrian domination of uncertain duration.</td>
<td>And states that, these conditions continuing,</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1216 B.C.</td>
<td>The Harris Papyrus continues is narrative by stating</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Dynasty XIX

The Interregnum
- Total duration by astronomical chronology: 261 years;
- according to the Old Egyptian Chronicle: 178 years;
- obviously longer than these two statements, since the Old Chronicle gives 101 years excess, and Africanus 111 years excess in Dynasty XIX.

Maspero states: (Struggle of the Nations,” p. 457)

"The military institutions of the country had become totally disorganised after the death of Menephtah, and that part of the community responsible for furnishing the army with recruits had become so weakened in the late troubles, that they were in a worse condition than before the 1st Libyan invasion,” in the 5th year of Menephtah.

Sayce states: "The way had been prepared by the Hittites for the Israelitish conquest of Canaan."

Budge states: "It is little short of marvellous that this mighty confederation of Libyans and their allies was vanquished by Menephtah’s army."

Maspero states: End of XIXth Dynasty, 9.5 years after the Exodus of Israel

We have here probably, a record concerning the doings of one of those Canaanites who were driven out of Canaan during the troublous times of the Judges in Israel.

Shasu of Adima are received into Egypt and settled by Menephtah’s governor at Pithom in the Crown Lands of Goshen, formerly occupied by the Israelites.

Maspero states: (Struggle of the Nations,” p. 457)

"The military institutions of the country had become totally disorganised after the death of Menephtah, and that part of the community responsible for furnishing the army with recruits had become so weakened in the late troubles, that they were in a worse condition than before the 1st Libyan invasion,” in the 5th year of Menephtah.

Budge states: "It is little short of marvellous that this mighty confederation of Libyans and their allies was vanquished by Menephtah’s army."

Menephtah's Song of Triumph states:

"The archers of His Majest made havoc of the barbarians for six hours."

Budge states: "It is little short of marvellous that this mighty confederation of Libyans and their allies was vanquished by Menephtah’s army."

Sayce states: "The way had been prepared by the Hittites for the Israelitish conquest of Canaan."

Maspero states: (Struggle of the Nations,” p. 457)

"The military institutions of the country had become totally disorganised after the death of Menephtah, and that part of the community responsible for furnishing the army with recruits had become so weakened in the late troubles, that they were in a worse condition than before the 1st Libyan invasion,” in the 5th year of Menephtah.

Budge states: "It is little short of marvellous that this mighty confederation of Libyans and their allies was vanquished by Menephtah’s army."

Sayce states: "The way had been prepared by the Hittites for the Israelitish conquest of Canaan."

Maspero states: (Struggle of the Nations,” p. 457)

"The military institutions of the country had become totally disorganised after the death of Menephtah, and that part of the community responsible for furnishing the army with recruits had become so weakened in the late troubles, that they were in a worse condition than before the 1st Libyan invasion,” in the 5th year of Menephtah.

Budge states: "It is little short of marvellous that this mighty confederation of Libyans and their allies was vanquished by Menephtah’s army."

Sayce states: "The way had been prepared by the Hittites for the Israelitish conquest of Canaan."

Maspero states: (Struggle of the Nations,” p. 457)

"The military institutions of the country had become totally disorganised after the death of Menephtah, and that part of the community responsible for furnishing the army with recruits had become so weakened in the late troubles, that they were in a worse condition than before the 1st Libyan invasion,” in the 5th year of Menephtah.

Budge states: "It is little short of marvellous that this mighty confederation of Libyans and their allies was vanquished by Menephtah’s army."

Sayce states: "The way had been prepared by the Hittites for the Israelitish conquest of Canaan."

Maspero states: (Struggle of the Nations,” p. 457)

"The military institutions of the country had become totally disorganised after the death of Menephtah, and that part of the community responsible for furnishing the army with recruits had become so weakened in the late troubles, that they were in a worse condition than before the 1st Libyan invasion,” in the 5th year of Menephtah.

Budge states: "It is little short of marvellous that this mighty confederation of Libyans and their allies was vanquished by Menephtah’s army."

Sayce states: "The way had been prepared by the Hittites for the Israelitish conquest of Canaan."

Maspero states: (Struggle of the Nations,” p. 457)

"The military institutions of the country had become totally disorganised after the death of Menephtah, and that part of the community responsible for furnishing the army with recruits had become so weakened in the late troubles, that they were in a worse condition than before the 1st Libyan invasion,” in the 5th year of Menephtah.

Budge states: "It is little short of marvellous that this mighty confederation of Libyans and their allies was vanquished by Menephtah’s army."

Sayce states: "The way had been prepared by the Hittites for the Israelitish conquest of Canaan."

Maspero states: (Struggle of the Nations,” p. 457)

"The military institutions of the country had become totally disorganised after the death of Menephtah, and that part of the community responsible for furnishing the army with recruits had become so weakened in the late troubles, that they were in a worse condition than before the 1st Libyan invasion,” in the 5th year of Menephtah.

Budge states: "It is little short of marvellous that this mighty confederation of Libyans and their allies was vanquished by Menephtah’s army."

Sayce states: "The way had been prepared by the Hittites for the Israelitish conquest of Canaan."

Maspero states: (Struggle of the Nations,” p. 457)

"The military institutions of the country had become totally disorganised after the death of Menephtah, and that part of the community responsible for furnishing the army with recruits had become so weakened in the late troubles, that they were in a worse condition than before the 1st Libyan invasion,” in the 5th year of Menephtah.

Budge states: "It is little short of marvellous that this mighty confederation of Libyans and their allies was vanquished by Menephtah’s army."

Sayce states: "The way had been prepared by the Hittites for the Israelitish conquest of Canaan."

Maspero states: (Struggle of the Nations,” p. 457)

"The military institutions of the country had become totally disorganised after the death of Menephtah, and that part of the community responsible for furnishing the army with recruits had become so weakened in the late troubles, that they were in a worse condition than before the 1st Libyan invasion,” in the 5th year of Menephtah.

Budge states: "It is little short of marvellous that this mighty confederation of Libyans and their allies was vanquished by Menephtah’s army."

Sayce states: "The way had been prepared by the Hittites for the Israelitish conquest of Canaan."

Maspero states: (Struggle of the Nations,” p. 457)

"The military institutions of the country had become totally disorganised after the death of Menephtah, and that part of the community responsible for furnishing the army with recruits had become so weakened in the late troubles, that they were in a worse condition than before the 1st Libyan invasion,” in the 5th year of Menephtah.

Budge states: "It is little short of marvellous that this mighty confederation of Libyans and their allies was vanquished by Menephtah’s army."

Sayce states: "The way had been prepared by the Hittites for the Israelitish conquest of Canaan."

Maspero states: (Struggle of the Nations,” p. 457)

"The military institutions of the country had become totally disorganised after the death of Menephtah, and that part of the community responsible for furnishing the army with recruits had become so weakened in the late troubles, that they were in a worse condition than before the 1st Libyan invasion,” in the 5th year of Menephtah.

Budge states: "It is little short of marvellous that this mighty confederation of Libyans and their allies was vanquished by Menephtah’s army."

Sayce states: "The way had been prepared by the Hittites for the Israelitish conquest of Canaan."

Maspero states: (Struggle of the Nations,” p. 457)

"The military institutions of the country had become totally disorganised after the death of Menephtah, and that part of the community responsible for furnishing the army with recruits had become so weakened in the late troubles, that they were in a worse condition than before the 1st Libyan invasion,” in the 5th year of Menephtah.

Budge states: "It is little short of marvellous that this mighty confederation of Libyans and their allies was vanquished by Menephtah’s army."

Sayce states: "The way had been prepared by the Hittites for the Israelitish conquest of Canaan."

Maspero states: (Struggle of the Nations,” p. 457)

"The military institutions of the country had become totally disorganised after the death of Menephtah, and that part of the community responsible for furnishing the army with recruits had become so weakened in the late troubles, that they were in a worse condition than before the 1st Libyan invasion,” in the 5th year of Menephtah.